TRAINING SELECTION PANEL

RESCISION: NPIC Instruction No. 18-3 Revised, dated
20 December 1976

1. GENERAL

This Instruction applies to CIA employees of the National Photographic Interpretation Center. It states the responsibilities, functions, and membership of the NPIC Training Selection Panel.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Training Selection Panel is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Director, NPIC, nominees for training courses and experiences for which there is competition among Center components and among Directorate offices. This would include nominations to the Midcareer Course, the Advanced Intelligence Seminar, Senior Service Schools and graduate management programs. The Panel, at its initiative or when asked, also will review and make recommendations concerning Center training activities and programs.

3. MEMBERSHIP

The Panel will consist of five members selected by each of the Center's major components and approved by the Director, NPIC. Each officer serves on the Panel for two years. The Chairman is selected by the Director, NPIC. The Executive Secretary will be appointed by the Panel and approved by the Director, NPIC, for a one year term. The Career Development Officer serves as an advisor to the Panel and also acts as an advisor on career development matters.
